SEMI VIEW...MINER TALKS... I have just come up the mine after being there for 52 hours, the reason I have to come up is, is because I've had to bury my father. The men in the mines have er' no doubt are suffering, but the spirit is wonderful, and they say they're never come up, until they get what they fight for. What we are fighting for are our houses. This company are importing in imported labour, and taking the right, and the bread out of our childrens' mouths.

52 feet.

CU...TALKS...We have tried peaceful negotiations, and strikes, and Saturday we met on the pit bottom and decided as a form of protes, we would'nt come up till everything is settled all non-unionists leave from the colliery, and our homes be protected from now on.
