

C-408350
4

KING-HALL SPEECH.

L/V WALKS OUT FROM DOORWAY 7

King-Hall
S/V ~~REMARKS~~ TALKS 22 .

~~"What does the Austrian crisis mean to the people of Great Britain? That is the question million of minds. I am making these remarks at 3 p.m. on Saturday.~~

①

~~Now at a time when Austrian Independence is being dissected in front of Europe, would be neither useful or appropriate to attempt to make any comment on matters of detail.~~

King Hall
C/U ~~REMARKS~~ TALKS 37

②

"But the clear lesson which these events should bring home to you and me, is that the principle that might is right now dominates Central Europe." "There should be no more illusions. Austria this week end - it may be Czechoslovakia's turn next."

King Hall
F/LL/C/U ~~REMARKS~~ TALKS 40

③

"The Czechs say they'd fight and the French and Russians are pledged to help them. Agression is on the march and if it goes on marching it cannot fall one day to conflict with the vital interest of Great Britain. The conclusion to be drawn from this week-end is "We have been warned."

LENGTH 105.