~~OFF-STAGE VOICE---FLASHES~~

1. OPEN FOR SUPER: DEFENSE ON WHEELS, Cleveland, Ohio.
Uncle Sam rushes his new iron cavalry. At this plant 7,400 scout cars are being built---45 million dollars worth. The four-wheel drive rough-riders carry quarter inch armor plate, and take the bumps at fifty miles an hour. Production is on a 24-hour a day schedule. It's American industry on the march!
1. OPEN FOR SUPER: PRISON STAGES RODEO, McAlester, Okla.
2. Behind the walls! Oklahoma's state penitentiary holds its first annual prison rodeo. It's a unique experiment in prison welfare work, and is held on visitor's day.
7. Warden Jess Dunn, center, arranged the day's big show as part of the prison's sports program---so it's ride 'em!
12. Ride 'em, pardner---but don't ride too far!
1. OPEN FOR SUPER: ~~24-H~~ XMAS IS COMING!
2. Paramount News scoop! Only 365 days from last Christmas, that man's coming again!
4. And mechanical toys on the grand scale are ready. Messmore and Damon robot displays get their finishing touches for the holiday season.
7. And there's a preview of Christmas for these lucky tots.
10. Amazing naturalness in these motorized musicians....
12. And say, got your Christmas shopping done? Or is it you that Santa's laughing at....
