

MUSIC HATH CHARMS IN U.S. FOOTBALL

Issue No. 1016..22..11..1940.
Title: College Swing.
Track: City Streets.
Discs: 376.
Lines: Stagg.
Voice: Mellor.

In the 1940 football programme the star attraction comes from Texas. The hefty, all-conquering St. Mary's little thought they'd meet their Waterloo when they arrived at Brooklyn, but they did. How Long Island beat them is related for Paramount by the ace radio football-commentator, Bill Slater.

SLATER'S OFF-STAGE VOICE:

Meanwhile, the opposing Long Island squad hears about psychology to relieve tension and rest the brain ... Professor Paynter... And now the demonstration. Music first .. Next a bit of an ode .. Coach Clair Bee..

Eleven thousand see the big game. St. Mary's, in light uniforms, and L.I.U. -- barnstorm versus brainstorm -- which will triumph? St. Mary's ball -- a fumble ! .. recovered by L.I.U.! To everyone's surprise, the charm's working ... Long Island's moving !... and hark the inspiring lark .. Still L.I.U.'s ball ... Bob Trocolar touchdown passes to Leo Ravinsky in the end zone !... Long Island wins, 14-7...ain't science wonderful !!

Oct. 30, 1940

T: NM136
BG: CL54
Eff: 534-409-376
Klein
Slater
Exc.
19

OFF STAGE VOICE--FOOTBALL

Mr. Park
Miss Steinkamp
England
Foreign Dep't
Cutter
AP FILE

1. title: GRIDIRON SURPRISE:

Out of the avalanche of national football attractions, Paramount News pulls a colorful surprise! First, we introduce the barnstorming St. Mary's of Texas squad! In their $37,000 bus, these rip-snortin' collegians have traveled seven-thousand miles this season. Here, they arrive in Brooklyn, N.Y. -- to play Long Island University. No bucking machines....so they push the bus...push, boys.... Meanwhile, the opposing Long Island squad hears about psychology to relieve tension and rest the brain....Professor Paynter.....

~~Next~~ And now the demonstration. Music first....Next a bit of an ode....

Coach Clair Bee.....

Eleven thousand see the big game. St. Mary's, in light uniforms, and L.I.U. -- barnstorm versus brainstern -- which will triumph? St. Mary's ball...a fumble!.. recovered by L.I.U.! To everyone's surprise, the charm's working...Long Island's moving!...and hark the inspiring lark....Still L.I.U.'s ball...Bob Trocolar touchdown passes to Leo Ravinsky in the end zone!..Long Island wins, 14-7.....

ain't science wonderful!!