Note:- The decorations bestowed were equivalent to our Military Medals. There was no distinction between officers and men. A medal for acts of gallantry of a higher order (not quite equivalent to our V.C.) was bestowed on 4 recipients among them being the Captain of the Destroyer and a Rating seen standing side by side, shown in close-up. They can be differentiated from the others as the General in addition to shaking hands with them, salutes and embraces them on each cheek.
