

CAMERAMAN'S REPORT: PROSSER. SILENT. 3. 4. 41.

KING AND QUEEN'S VISIT SOUTHERN COMMAND.

Ben Spack
Queen inspects A.T.S. the location is most secret and any shots disclosing this must be cut.

King and Queen see anti-tank practice firing - cut-in shots
King and Queen under fire at open.

O.P. watching 25 lb bursts (too far to show) talking to O.P. crew in Bren carrier (This requires some library shots of 25 lb bursts cutting in).

Cut ins of Party showing Queen holding ears and watching shell from new heavy gun (not shown SECRET).

King and Queen inspecting A.T.S. with General Alexander - flash Queen inspecting more A.T.S.

King and Queen in workshops watching milling machine - talking to Coldstream Guards in Bren gun carrier.

The whole tour was rushed through so quickly that no one item could be satisfactorily covered by even two, let alone one camera. In addition, much of the material was ruined by bad set up, which could have been easily cleared up by previous contact.
A VERY SCRAPPY AND DISCONNECTED SORTIE ALTOGETHER.

ROTA.
