

KING & QUEEN TOUR YORKS COALFIELDS

People in mining areas, now enjoying comparative prosperity, have had a royal reminder of their importance in the war effort. In Wakefield and district Their Majesties were accorded a real Yorkshire welcome. Surface coal was being excavated when they arrived at Bullcliffe Wood, <sup>of course</sup> Every possible ton of coal must be obtained, and

It is of interest by the way
~~The queen is continuing to fulfill her public engagements.~~

The question of conferring the title, Princess of Wales on Princess Elizabeth has been postponed. shelved for a time.

Their Majesties accepted invitations to go into miners' houses. Altogether, the royal visit was highly popular among the people who produce the prime necessity of war production.

Pl in mining areas, now enjoying comparative prosperity, and a royal reminder of their importance in the war effort. Every possible ton of coal must be obtained, in Wakefield and its district and, the King & Queen were accorded a real Yorkshire welcome. As they arrived at Bullcliffe Wood, of course the surface coal is being excavated.