

NO WHITE HOUSE FOR WILLKIE ?

Milwaukee came into the political limelight when Wendell Willkie ~~announced~~ told Pressmen there that his defeat in the Wisconsin Primary made it out of the question for him to be nominated ~~as a Republican~~ candidate in the next Presidential election.

General Macarthur's supporters make great play with the Milwaukee come into the political limelight when Wendell Willkie told Pressmen there that his defeat in the Wisconsin Primary made it impossible for him to be nominated ~~as~~ as Republican candidate in the next Presidential election.

General Macarthur's supporters are busy comparing that great soldier with ~~the~~ George Washington. They want him at the White House.

~~Maximum~~

nomination of Events appear to favour Governor Dewey. He is an orthodox Republican, ~~which will be a~~ ~~not~~, and many members of the Grand Old Party think ^{it} he has the best chance of anybody against the Democrats. ~~Dewey stands for the rights of Congress.~~