NAZIS JITTERY, SAY RETURNED PRISONERS

638 repatriated prisoners had an ecstatic welcome as the liner ^GGriffholm docked at Liverpool.

Many of them were seeing their native land for the first time for four years. May the loving care of the Motherland restore them to full health. Somewhere among them was the son of the Canadian High Commissioner, Mr. Vincent Massey.

They came from camps in many parts of Germany, ^{and} but all ~~the country is in a bad state of nerves as~~ report that the country is in a bad state of nerves as it hourly awaits the ^{British attack} ~~Second Front~~. Also, the ^{Government} ~~people~~ are very sore about bombing. They took the prisoners a long way round to hide the damage from them.
