

President's Day.
Makes News

With a speech as brilliant in content as it was masterly in delivery, President Roosevelt sends his election campaign off to a terrific start.

September 26, 1944

T:
Bg:
Eff:
Kees
Connolly
Non
#9

1. TITLE: POLITICS -- FDR OPENS CAMPAIGN
2. Washington, and at the International Teamsters' Union dinner, President Roosevelt makes his first campaign speech of 1944, mixing the serious with much good humor and satire.