City of Belgrade

Our tanks went into action in order to split up the enemy defence in the main streets.

Simultaneously, the Guards Mortar units struck a blow from the outskirts of the city, and destroyed great numbers of Germans.

German prisoners ... They are no longer masters and conquerors ... but "skunks", as they are contemptuously called in Jugoslavia.

And these are traitors to their motherland - servile tools of the Germans.

The capital of our ally Jugoslavia has been liberated!
