SV. Monty and Germans sit down at table and Monty talks:- "We assembled here today to accept the surrender terms which have been made with the delegation from the German Army. I will now read out the terms of that instrument of surrender:-

"The German command agrees to the surrender of all German Armed Forces in Holland, in northwest Germany including the Frisian Islands and Heligoland and all other Islands and Schleswig-Holstein and in Denmark to the C-in-C, 21st. Army group. This to include all Naval ships in these areas. These forces to lay down their arms and to surrender unconditionally."

SCU Monty talking:- "Disobedience of orders or failure to comply with them will be regarded as a breach of these surrender terms and will be dealt with by the Allied powers in accordance with the accepted laws and usages of war". "The decision of the Allied powers will be final - if any doubt or dispute arises as to the meaning or interpretation of these surrender terms".

That is the text of the instrument of surrender and the German delegation will now sign this paper and they will sign in order of seniority and Gen. Admiral Van Friedeberg will sign first". SV. Monty moves over and Friedeberg and Kienl sign:- "now - Gen. Kienl will sign next. LV Wagner, Pollock and Frieder signing and Monty sits down and signs:- and now Admiral Wagner will sign next - Gen. Pollock will sign next - and Major Frieder will sign last. Now I will sign the instrument on behalf of the Supreme Allied Commander, General Eisenhower".

"Now that concluded the formal surrender and there are various matters now - details to be discussed which we will do in closed session".

SV. Monty outside Caravan speaks:-

"On this day Victory in Europe I feel I would like to speak to all who have served and fought with me during the last few years - what I have to say is very simple and quite short- I would ask you all to remember those of our comrades who fell in the struggle. They gave their lives that others might have freedom and no man can do more than that. I believe that God would say to each one of the - "Well done, thou good and Faithful servant".

SCU Monty outside Caravan speaks:-

" In the early days of this war the British Empire stood alone against the combined might of the Axis powers and during those days we suffered some great disasters but we stood firm on the defensive but striking blows where we could. Later we joined by Russian and American men and from then onwards the end was in no doubt". It has been a privilege and an honour to command this great British Empire team in Western Europe. Few commanders have had such loyal service as you have given me. I thank each one of you from the bottom of my heart and so let us embark on what lies ahead full of joy and optimism we have won the German War-let us now win the peace. Good luck to each one of you wherever you may be".
