

Asso. Screen

POS. SCENES ON OPERATION MUSK-OX

Churchill, Manitoba

Lt. Col. P.D. Baird (Commander of Musk-Ox) and Major A.A. Wallace, Second in Command

Snowmobiles at camp - seen to do 3,000 mile trip

Two shots of cold weather country

L.S. Airport - Built as secret Atlantic Ferry Base

Loading supplies to be dropped

Various low level and parachute drops.

Nat'l Film Board

NEG SCENES ON OPERATION MUSK-OX

Churchill, Manitoba

1. MS Men on train enroute to Churchill study map of EXERCISE MUSK-OX
2. CU map
3. MS Evening shot of arrival at Churchill station, backlighted by setting sun
4. MS Engine puffs into station in sub-zero weather - Snowmobile in box-car
5. MS Side of box-car containing Snowmobile
6. MS Front view of Snowmobile coming out of box-car emitting steaming exhaust
7. CU Snowmobile coming off boxcar
8. MS Snowmobile drives down street, followed by team of huskies pulling sled.
9. MCU member of Royal Canadian Air Force supply force having his hair cut in Commanche Indian style
10. MS row of RCAF men with Commanche haircuts. Pan r to l
11. Foreign attaches who are observers of EXERCISE MUSK-OX from their embassies in Ottawa, studying maps and plans. They are, right to left, Commander H. N. Groman, U.S. Navy, Col. Cesar Alvarez, Peru, Wing Commander Felix Olmedo, Chile, Lieut. Hartley Antonsen, Norway
12. Pan right to left: Lieut. Col. J.P. Thomas, U.S. Army Air Corps, Major Harry Archer, U.S. Army, Lieut.-Col. H. Mesnet, France, Major Jean A. Ducq, Belgium.