

MARY CHURCHILL WEDDING.

Neither the freezing weather nor the fuel crisis deterred hundreds of people from crowding round the famous church of St. Margaret's, Westminster, to see what they could of the wedding of Mary Churchill, General de Tassigny was among the French military contingent. Then came Lord and Lady Simon ... Lord Portal ... Mr. Hore-Belisha ...

People outside the Churchill residence saw the bride emerge on the arm of her father. Miss Mary Churchill looked very lovely in a gown of stiff white satin. During the war, when she served in the A.T.S., she was a familiar figure to millions, ^{7/3 often seen} ~~what~~ in the company of her distinguished father.

Eminent people were still arriving at St. Margarets.

Lord and Lady Mountbatten, old friends of the Churchills, the Prime Minister and Mrs. Attlee.... ~~The bride's mother,~~

Sunday 3 to bride's mother, Mrs. Duncanson
~~Mrs. Churchill, was~~ with her daughters Sarah and Mrs. Duncanson

At last came the bride and her father. It was a close view of the girl whose smile and kindness endeared her to thousands during the war.

Coldstream Guardsmen made up the Guard of Honour. The bridegroom, Captain Soames, served in that regiment.

As he brought his bride out of the church the hearts of the thousands of onlookers warmed to them.

(TV car away) The people of every quarter of the globe in which the name Churchill is honoured wish every happiness to Captain Soames and his bride.
