

Now a naturalised American, world-famous Professor Einstein attended the 200th anniversary of Princeton University. ~~Admiral Nimitz, ~~General Eisenhower~~~~ along with General Eisenhower and the Governor General of Canada, Lord Alexander, received a degree. ~~The accent was on~~ military affairs, as President Truman spoke in defence of compulsory service. The Field Marshal, dignified as ever, became a doctor of laws.

1. TITLE PRINCETON HONORS 36 AT BICENTENNIAL
2. Princeton, the nation's fourth oldest university, celebrates its 200th birthday. Among the distinguished guests are these present and former residents of the White House. With President Truman and ex-President Hoover are the widows of Gover Cleveland at left and Woodrow Wilson.
6. Now, the convocation ceremony! Dr. Albert Einstein participates. Thirty-six persons are awarded honorary degrees, including Admiral Nimitz, General Eisenhower, Dr. Vannevar Bush, Bernard Baruch, Warren R. Austin, Viscount Alexander, the Governor-General of Canada, and President Truman.
12. On the steps of Nassau Hall, where General Washington received a tribute from the Continental Congress 160 years ago, General Eisenhower receives an honorary degree from Princeton's president Harold Dodds.
16. President Truman is also awarded an honorary doctorate of laws, his tenth since he became president. Then, before 6,500 Princetonians and their visitors, the President urges the adoption of Universal Military Training.
24. New responsibilities for youth as Princeton starts its third century of service!
