

WIMBLEDON SETS STAGE FOR FINALS

Petra versus T. Brown of America, was the needle match on Number One Court in the fifth round of the Men's Singles. As was expected, the U.S. player was too good for his French opponent, and the man who won the title last year was decisively beaten in straight sets.

On the centre court the much fancied Kramer settled the hopes of G. Brown of Australia, also in straight sets.

Brown is one of the few first-rate players with a double grip back-hand.

better kn as Kay Stearns,
Mrs. Menzies, proved too good for Mrs. Hopman of Australia.

Showing her prewar form the graceful left-hander won six-two, six-two.

(1 after ^{crowd} head-turn)

 Match point, Kay's service and one of the few British victories at Wimbledon this year.