

KRAMER WINS TENNIS TITLE

Spectators in the crowded Centre Court at Wimbledon were joined by Their Majesties and Princess Margaret just before the star match of the meeting, the Final of the Men's Singles — contested by the two Americans Brown and Kramer. It was Brown who defeated Petra, the holder, but general opinion was that he had little hope of ~~defeating~~ ^{beating} his fellow-countryman today. Kramer served and was in conquering form from the start.

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ X Brown serving.

X (crowd) Down 1-5, Brown served at set-point and lost, so first set to Kramer 6-1.

Kramer serving, second set.

(King) Set point in the second set. Kramer serving....
Winning 6-3 Kramer was two sets up. When the third set began it was clear that unless Brown very much improved set-three would be the last.

(board) Kramer leads 5-2. It's match point. Kramer's service.

Winner
(shake hands) ~~Vieter~~-in straight sets Kramer scored one of the most runaway victories of any Wimbledon Final. So the trophy goes to America, captured by a player worthy of comparison with the best.
