

Third flash

Morocco has revived the Festival of Moulay Idriss, celebrated for the first time since nineteen thirty-nine. Tribesmen from all over the country rode into the town of Sainte de Moulay. The Festival has a religious origin but ~~between the two periods of the festival~~ the emphasis has shifted and it is nowadays the feast more than the session of prayer which attracts the faithful. General <sup>des</sup> Essarts attended as representative of the French resident General.