NO BASIC, MORE SPIVS 1

INDUSTRIAL SPROKT IN THE BI-ZONAL AREA TO HELP GIVE THE

150 PER CENT ABOVE THE PRODUCTION LEVEL IN THE TWO 20NES". WITHIS WILL SUPPORT AN OUTPUT OF APPROXIMATEGY OVER

NEOACH TO BU SET BE THE TEXTER LEVELS IN DECKLISTING

BUT HE DENIES THAT HE HAS CIVEN SUBSIDIES TO IRCUM ZVAT LEUMIT MONET TO HIS PROTHER WHO IS AN ORANGE MERCHANT IN TELAVIVE MARKET WITH ECTPIEAN POUNDS AND TO HAVE SENT A LARGE SUN OR

INSTRUCTING MAGISTRATE THIS MATERIOGNY

7.45 PM. DOOLL .

Hundreds of motorists converged on Coventry, capital of the car industry, to make a mass protest against the abolition of/basic petrol allewance. Motoring erganisations and leaders of the trade maintain that a twenty per cent. cut in army petrol would more than save the basic ration. Nuffield Vice Chairman Sir Miles Thomas mentioned thousands of the unfairness to ex-soldiers, who saved hard to buy a car, only to find now that they've got to lay it up in the garage. ASSURANCE TO THOUSANDY OF HANDRACTURERS! LARGE AND SMALL!