MIKOLACZYK (POLISH REFUGEE) STORY.

SV Greet's wife.

On the eve of the 16th I get secret news - first day of the Parliamentary session they ----- and Mr. ----- and I get also the news that after there would be a trial there would be a death sentence, so I warned my friends because one other friend was also involved, Mr. ^{that} Baginski, and we decided to leave the country. I was afraid also if they sentenced me to death ----- take revenge ----- avoid bloodshed, and I wanted to avoid this too. After all, I don't want to be only a sheep who would be killed, specially because my party couldn't work more. On the 8th October we put the resolution forward that all the methods of intimidation against our party have made practically impossible the existence of the party.

PCU

I left Warsaw the evening of the 20th by train through ----- and ----- to the Western frontiers of Poland, across the frontiers, across the Soviet Zone of Occupation and arrived on Saturday at the British Zone of Occupation of Germany. Today I arrived here,

(Question) "What are your plans?"

(Ans) "I Have no plans at the moment."

(Question) "Do you intend to stay in this country?"

(Ans) "I have no plans at the moment."

(Question) "Are you going to the United States."

(repeat) "Are you going to the United States?"

(Ans.) "I say I have no plans for the moment."
