

PHILIP A GODFATHER

At the Brabourne family church of Mersham in Kent was christened the baby grandson of Earl and Countess Mountbatten. The young grandparents ~~were accompanied by~~ came home of India

~~the bride and groom, the bride and groom.~~

a few days ago 2 attend happy events - a christening, 7 at royal wedding.

Lady Brabourne had her infant son well muffled against the bleak November day, and after the ~~ceremony~~ service the whole christening party briefly posed for the photographers.

It was an informal ceremony ~~almost on the eve of the royal wedding~~ and naturally much attention was focussed on Lieutenant Philip Northcott as Lord and Lady Brabourne hurried home with their precious charge.
