EDINBURGH AT BUTLIN'S REUNION

"Mr. Butlin, Ladies and Gentlemen: Thank you very much indeed for your kind welcome this evening, and thank you all for this wonderful contribution to the Playing Fields of this country.

As you heard, this scheme was started  $3\frac{1}{2}$  years ago, and it was decided then (lens change) that the money raised would be spent in the town in which most of the campers had come from. As a result of this other fields or pavilions have been started or planned over an enormous number of places - Coventry, Liverpool, Halifax, Oldham, Bolton, Carlisle, and I think tomorrow Wigan will be added to the list (laughter). The joint committee between Butlins and the N.P.F.A. are advised on the allocation of this money, and at the moment they are negotiating with Glasgow to start a Field there with the money raised in the Scottish camps. As you heard, tonight's cheque brings the total collected in the last  $3\frac{1}{2}$  years to £20,000 (applause) (big bang and laughter). I think that must almost as much of a surprise to you as to me. (laughter) (This is a wonderful achievement, and I congratulate you all, every one of you, no matter how small your contribution was. I am told that the success of this scheme was largely due to the voluntary house chairmen who organized the collection, of which there are 180 of them here tonight, and I think they deserve our recognition and our thanks. In fact, applause. It is all very well to praise the cow, but don't forget the milkmaid, - she delivers the goods.)
