

INTERVIEW MRS. SANDERS

"I am extremely disappointed..... (cut)

"I am extremely disappointed that the government have turned down this offer. I haven't seen my husband for the past 3 years, and during that time I have not had any letters from him. ~~I didn't know whether he was alive or not.~~ I didn't know whether he was alive or not, and now that I know he is I hope that now this exchange..... the government will do all they can to release my husband."

"I am extremely (cut)

"I am extremely disappointed that the government have turned down this offer..

I am extremely disappointed that the government have turned down this offer. My husband has been in jail for the past 3 years, during which time I haven't heard from him. ~~I didn't know whether he was alive or not, but now I know he is alive, and I hope the government will do all things possible to release him.~~

"I am extremely disappointed that the government (cut)

"I am very disappointed that the government cannot accept this offer. My husband has been in jail for the past three years, and I haven't had a letter from him. I was happy that now this exchange has now been made (cut, she says 'It's all wrong')

"I am very disappointed that the government have turned down this offer. My husband has been in jail for the past three years, during which time I haven't had a letter from him. I do hope that that... (I didn't know whether my husband was alive or dead, but now I know he is alive I do hope the government will do all they can to release him."

"I hope and pray that something will materialise in the near future and that my husband will soon be home with us again. I also would like to thank everybody for being so kind and for so much help in this matter..."

Mr Budapest.

Vogel.

Foreign Office.

Silent shot group.

SW looks at photo.

etc of "Santos" photo.

Budapest.

Vogel.

Mrs Santos talk.