

x-088-440

CLASSIFICATION.....

NEWSPAPER CLIPPING

SUBJECT.....

MONTGOMERY MEETS BRADLEY IN CAPITAL

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, March 27 —

Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, the Deputy Supreme Commander of Allied Forces in Europe, spent the first day of his visit to the Capital in a round of calls to his former comrades-in-arms and a conference at the Department of State.

The Field Marshal is President Eisenhower's guest at the White House until next Thursday when he will start on a tour of United States military installations.

General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, with whom Field Marshal Montgomery had more than one flare-up during World War II over plans and tactics, led the welcoming party for the Briton at National Airport. The two greeted each other warmly.

Also on hand was Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army Chief of Staff, and a group of other United States and British military officials.

Field Marshal Montgomery inspected an all-service guard of honor. At the White House he did not immediately meet his host, who was conducting his regular Cabinet meeting.

He was guest at a luncheon given at the Pentagon by Charles E. Wilson, the Secretary of Defense.

During the afternoon the Viscount spent about a half hour with John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State.

Early this evening President Eisenhower, the Viscount's wartime commander, got together with his visitor in the White House quarters.

TAC
3/28/53