

FDR'S GRANDDAUGHTER WEDS BARBER'S SON

Manhattan's Lower East Side was all excited over a Cinderella story in reverse. Anthony di Bonaventura, a barber's son, was the bridegroom, marrying into the family of the millionaire Whitneys and the Roosevelts. The bride, ~~grand daughter of the late President,~~ was Sara Delano Roosevelt, ~~she was escorted by John Hay Whitney, who adopted her~~ when he married her mother, formerly wife of James Roosevelt, ~~to late president's son.~~ Bride and groom met studying music at Curtis Institute, Philadelphia. // Anthony's father has a barber's shop near this Catholic Church. From the local Italian Colony the pretty 21-year-old bride and her youthful husband had a great reception. Love had surmounted barriers high as a skyscraper.
