

TOP COWBOYS CONTEST WORLD RODEO TITLE

100,000 people - a cup final crowd - filled Los Angeles Coliseum for the Sheriffs' Rodeo. The great Hopalong Cassidy ~~humsahh~~ was the grand marshall, whose privilege it is that he doesn't have to ride the brooks himself, not to mention <sup>20</sup> <sup>t Bulls</sup> They get paid for the number of seconds they can stick on.

You see how it's done - by leaning well back! Either that, or else this chap's a dummy - glued on.

For the Brahma bull you'd want six -inch hails, as well as glue. They're not really nice animals at all.

This one's full of brains as well as dynamite. He knows just how to dispose of cowboys.... Bless me if he dbesn't look round for more. Any lady?

August 25, 1953

Music: Carousel - (Ace in Hole) PN 579
One-Stop (Welcome Stranger) PN 195

Klein
Glickman
Non
Issue #3

SHERIFFS' SHOW      WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP RODEO

Los Angeles Coliseum: 105 thousand see the world's top cowhands perform for the Sheriffs' Relief Association. Hopalong Cassidy is grand marshall -- and for a thrilling eyeful pokes his shootin' iron right at you. But that's tame alongside the rodeo hair-raisers. Bareback riders find the broncs nothing less than charged dynamite! This fellow just glued himself aboard! A ride of ten jolting seconds. Next, the Brahma Bull -- known for its meanness and ability to toss a rider ski-high! Need more than an umbrella to hide from a steer ... and more than a fence to foil him!

As witness this next ride to nowhere ... c-h-a-r-g-e!! -- and the rider's hung on the fence! Anyone else for tennis? Perhaps just a little bull session? ... no? Well, anyhow, nice to have met you all!

Issue