

At the ~~ceremony of 150,000~~ ^{cemetery of} 650,000

Italians killed in the First World War, Prime Minister Pella led the Remembrance Day tribute. This ~~cemetery~~ ^{mass grave}.

~~is~~ is in the Istrian Peninsula, near Trieste.

Pella had difficulty in ~~making his departure~~ ^{getting away} through the dense crowd of 150,000 people. ~~Back~~ 30.

~~Back~~ in Trieste Italians returning from the ~~service~~ ^{service} made ~~staged~~ a demonstration, ~~urging~~ Trieste for Italy. When police tried to ~~man~~ disperse them it grew into a riot. It went on into the night, and the next day, when three people were killed. Signor Pella has sent a message condemning the demonstration and urging Italians [?] remain calm.

Vice-Admiral Abel-Smith (left) : Capt. Nicholson (right)

49

85
47
36