

LINCOLNS BOMB MAU MAU HIDEOUTS

28
Bombers are expected to be the solution of the new phase of the Mau Mau problem. Loaded and fuelled the Lincolns headed for the foothills of the Aberdare Mountains where the terrorists have fled. Over Nairobi the bombers flew on their first raid. Then the flight took them over the Kikuyu Reserve. No Mau Mau assassins are left there. They've hidden away in the forests. Almost skimming the treetops flew the ~~small~~^{little} spotter plane. Through the foliage the pilot saw ^{some of} the killers, ⁷ signalled the bombers. It was bombs away! The Mau Mau will soon learn that no safety remains for them ^{terrorist} among the trees. By air the/raiders are out-raided themselves.
