Williams ended the fight near the end of the second round with a hard right to the jaw....<sup>So</sup>/Sportswriter Peter Wilson was able to telephone the best news for some time in British Heavy-weight circles.

The pride of Trinidad, Yolande Pompey, opposed America's Bobby Dawson and for the first five-rounds was well on top in a middleweight contest looked on as a pointer to the World Title. Reg King's promotion; Nott. Ice Rink. In round four Pompey sent Dawson on to the canvas again and some spectators thought the American was saved by the bell. Dawson recovered. From this point he dominated the fight with superior boxing skill.

By In the tenth and last round both fighters had taken so much punishment they could hardly go on. Nobody quarreled with the referee when he gave the verdict to Dawson. Severe setback for Pompey. Another feather in the cap of coloured American, Bobby Dawson.
