

FLASHES!

2
Tetuan, capital of Spanish Morocco, welcomed General Valino, the High Commissioner, to assure him that the people are strongly loyal to Spain. Cynics may suspect that Spain herself inspired the demonstration. At any-contrast the rate the general seized the occasion to ~~harmony in this part of Africa with the trouble the French are having in their end of Morocco. As peace is always better than strife, it's to be hoped that no trouble crosses the border.~~

3
Chiang Kai Shek's picture was borne aloft to Seoul, capital of Southern Korea, by released prisoners of war who refuse to go back to Communist China. There are 14,000 of them and they will be taken to the Island of Formosa, where Chiang has his Government. It says very little for life in Communist ^{Red} China that the men who fought for it prefer not to go back there. Millions in ^{to homeland} ~~China~~ must be envying these soldiers the chance to live in freedom on Formosa.

4
Latest oddity of the air is the Flying Fuselage, on test at Santa Ana, California. The flaps can be extended but there are no wings in the ordinary sense. The designer hopes to make such aircraft for the Army; what advantages he claims for it are not yet published.