Mr Dulles met Dr. Adenauer for a few hours in Cologne on his way back from the Berlin Conference. They have long been friends and are in accord over policy questions concerning Germany and the rest of Europe.

The arrival of Marilyn Monroe in Korea was the biggest event since the cease fire. Even in battledress she nearly caused a stampede. The sort of bowl in the hills made a perfect theatre? The girl from Hollywood gave shows to 60,000 men in the first two days, If they'd sent her before the armistice it would have stopped the war. all of them hearty supporters of the Monroe Doctrine. ## MARILYN "NO'S 'EM" IN KOREA

Marilyn Monroe arrives in Korea, to tour the front-lines for four days.

Hubby Jee Dimaggio is in Japan, coaching Japanese baseball teams. Marilyn wears drab G.I. clothing as she meets the boys. No G.I. ever got such attention! The weather is cold, but nothing distracts from the enthusiasm of the welcome.

Now, who'd want an air view at this time!

In the natural, and chilly, outdoor bowl, Marilyn proves she's a real trouper.

The hills are alive with troops as Marilyn puts on her act. Officers estimate that she plays to about 60-thousand men in her first two days in Korea.

There's agreement among soldiers and marines, privates and commanding officers: Marilyn is tops! Says she: "Gosh, I've never seen so many men in my life."
