 Himself James (known as Jim) Ruff and his wife, and dog that shared his watch nightly. one or two shots of them at the door of the house,,, inside the house reading the paper etc, the only thing, he can do now, that he has so much spare time...
 Suggested that we went to the dump, and showed where the long hours were spent, over 340 nights a year, but owing to the various arguments about this back payment, thinks it best to keep away from the dump, until he is actually going on duty, which means he arrives in darkness and leaves in darkness.
 However, he is on duty all day Sunday, and will ~~like~~ play ball to whatever we ~~like~~ want, caravan etc etc 8am to 6pm
 His address is Rowan Road Isleworth (nr Brentford)

COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF SCENES

Three short ends used with H.P.S. inside the caravan... Shots show the dump, where Jim Ruff has done his watching for the past few years, his job being to look after machines such as bull dozers etc and scrap metal rustlers and of course looking out for fires etc .

Shots inside the caravan show a couple of his mates looking in for a cup of tea, Jim looking out...sea gulls (often his only companions) for hours at a stretch....during the last few years he has done over 100 hours per week, being on duty, every night of the week, cycling from Brentford to the Isleworth, six miles night & morning...Jim is one armed, he lost his arm in a mill accident..shots of his wife Nellie and the dog Boxer..

This couple are very honest to God sort of people and until now, quite poor, his money being somewhere about £7 per week..

To get the necessary permission, to take shots on this dump etc, I had to interview about four officials of the Ilesworth council, finishing with the town clerk, quite pleasant but apprehensive about what we might say in the commentry.

A couple of shots of him leaving and arriving, his wife has seen him off, like this for years...
