

HIGH ALPS STAGE SKI FASHIONS

20 Well, your guess is as good as ours. Oh, it's a ski-ing outfit, and very nicely put over. So it should be, because the famous winter sports fashion house of Unnutzer, of Munich, took some of their lovelies up the Zugspitze for an Alpine fashion display. This is the month when everybody who can is off to spend a holiday on skis, a sport to which the big dress people are paying more and more attention every year, making sure that even if you don't become an expert you can look the part and be beautiful at the same time.

115 Here are two more to join the beauty parade. And if you're waiting to see them ski you're unlucky; nobody's going to risk a fall in creations like these.

86 From a girl's angle there's only one thing lacking in this paradise: there aren't any men about. That'll soon be altered when the news of all this fine scenery gets around.

London

13th Oct., 1954.

Ski-Fashions

(~~xxx~~ exclusive)

The Zugspitze was very astonished, when the "Skihaserls" of the creator of sport-fashions, Unnütz^{er} of München, went up to the Schneefernerhaus and befooled the weather and the surprised visitors with the new U-line.

There were charming faces behind the protecting celluloid, damned tight trousers and a fancy wool garment with tufts. The fur-trimmed après-ski-boots belong ~~near~~ ^{besides} fur-mittens and hood to an innocent-looking girl.

Don't be so bashful, little zebra. What about this model, Gentlemen? Maybe you like this one better?

hmm
B
B
B

B B ~~~~~ ~~~~~