~~XX~~

Aintree winner the year before last, Royal Tan had a work-out on the Naas racecourse, Trainer O'Brien looking on, and in the saddle that fine jockey Taaffe. Maybe Ireland will provide another Grand National winner, but nothing's certain about Aintree, and on the sands at Rhyll Sol Parker's string included Pipykin, who has a ^{big} following. Aintree itself, meanwhile, is under ~~what~~ the eye of course-owner Mrs. Topham and the famous jumps are being prepared for the big day.

In this theatre you will see the National thrillingly filmed on this screen. It won't be televised. Names of past winners are on the stables they occupied at Aintree in their lucky year... * It's the biggest steeplechase in the world - indeed there's nothing that comes anywhere near it. So don't miss the film - here, in this theatre.
