

WALES & IRELAND DRAW

Ireland kicked off against Wales at Ninian Park. Ireland on the attack now, playing from right to left. But on their own soil Wales soon took command and went all out to take the lead in the early stages.

A superb dribble by John Charles resulted in the ball going to outside-left Roy Clarke. He scored.

Ten minutes after that goal a penalty was given against Ireland. Manchester City left-half Roy Paul took the kick but Uprichard made a wonderful save.

So Wales led one-nil at half time, ~~but run out play~~ though it should have ~~been two or three more, had the forwards taken their chances.~~

(72)

Three minutes after the interval ~~Irish outside right~~ Bingham slipped a pass to centre-forward/Jones, <sup>Jimmy</sup> ~~and~~ equalised.
~~Ireland were level.~~

(after onwd) After that there was more vigour than science, so perhaps a draw was a fair result.
