

A TALE OF TWO WEDDINGS

At Holy Trinity, Brompton, took place the biggest wedding of the London season so far. Miss Jane Sheffield had 12 bridesmaids and three pages to attend her in her marriage 20 to the Duke of Kent's friend, Jocelyn Stevens, nephew of publisher Edward ~~Hamm~~ Hulton. There was a tremendous <sup>crush</sup> ~~sum~~ as the bride and bridegroom left the church, ~~hundreds~~ hundreds of people wanting to see them and their friends, many of whom 40 move in royal circles. The bridal gown was of white satin on silk organza.... The honeymoon will be spent in the United States and Jamaica.

In the church of St. Louis des Invalides there was a wedding of world wide interest. Genevieve de Galard, became known everywhere in the last days of the Indo-China Angel of Dien Bien Phu. war as the ~~Angela of Dien Bien Phu~~ In that doomed fort she stayed till the end to nurse the French wounded.
Now she was marrying Capt. Jean de Heaulme de <sup>Beutsoq,</sup> ~~Bantonn~~ a paratrooper whom she met out there. To be wed at this church, normally the privilege of high ranking officers, was an honour abundantly deserved, ~~by Mrs. Genevieve~~ 50 ~~de Beutsoq.~~
