

SCHOOLBOYS DELIGHT: MODEL ENGINEERING EXHIBITION

All roads in the holidays lead to the Horticultural Hall, where the ^{word} models doesn't mean a lot of girls but the sort of things a chap can take a real interest in. Look at that smashing helicopter. You can have the time of your life at this sort of exhibition. Fancy anybody being able to make model trams like these. If you had them at home it wouldn't matter if ^{one} ~~it~~ didn't know when to stop....

Talk about all the fun of the fair, it 's all here.
