

STIRLING MOSS WINS EUROPEAN GRAND PRIX

24 started in the European Grand Prix at Monza, Italy.

All the famous rivals were competing, Fangio, Stirling Moss, Peter Collins and others who've been tearing round the big courses this summer. The race was 50 laps of a ten-kilometre circuit; total distance 310 miles.

20

When Fangio retired with mechanical trouble Peter Collins handed gave him his car, to give the great Argentinian a chance to retain the world championship, which is putted on points awarded over 4 racing seasons

Stirling Moss ~~won~~ in a Maserati won at 130 m.p.h.

Fangio (Ferrari) was second, and became champion again.

58
~~73 race - Another great victory for Stirling Moss.~~

*Stirling Moss in a Maserati won at 130 mph.
Fangio (Ferrari) 2nd, thus earning two points & make the champion for 73 race, and get victory 4 S/M*