

More French troops have landed at Cyprus. Premier Guy ~~Mohamm~~

Mollet called a special Cabinet to consider action on the Suez question. He afterwards told the Press that the Ministers had agreed on a policy of extreme firmness if necessary.

The French arrival at Famagusta has <sup>created</sup> ~~been~~ a mental diversion in Cyprus, to some extent taking the mind off their own troubles. Far greater issues centre on the Canal.