At St. Paul's, Kingsclere-Woodlands, Hampshire took place the wedding of Captain E. V. Farquhar and Miss Polly Vian.

There were three ^{grown-up} bridesmaids as well as the ~~one~~ child ^{plus} bridesmaids.

20 Miss Vian was escorted by her father, ^{the} world-famous war-time hero, Admiral of the Fleet Sir Philip Vian. She wore a gown 30 of white French lace, a short train, tulle veil and a headdress of orange blossom. ~~After the~~ Warrant Officers of the 11th Hussars (Captain Farquhar's regiment) formed the guard of honour. After the reception at the bride's home, ^{the happy couple} they left for the honeymoon in Spain.

An amphibious military vehicle whose pneumatic side fittings keep it afloat was tested by the French army on the River Rhine. Newly invented it's considered by experts far and 20 away the best thing of its kind for getting troops and equipment across wide and rapid rivers in quick time.

(hand) The Génie, as it's called, can also carry a mobile bridge.
Three or four Génies support the bridge well enough to carry large loads across the river.

Glasgow is the latest city to have an open air art exhibition.
Modern pictures, concluded some onlookers after trying them several ways, just didn't make sense. But that was only one opinion. The pictures were hung on the railings of the Botanic Gardens. A few passers by thought the futuristic ones illustrated the old song that says, [↑] on Saturday night

Prince Rainier and Princess Grace embarked at ^{le} Havre ^{on} for the United States. ~~The former~~ Grace Kelly and her husband will stay ⁱⁿ ~~there~~ two months. Princess ~~Grace~~ will not be returning to films. She and the Prince ~~hope~~ hope that a ~~the~~ happy event to which they look forward will provide an heir to the Principality of Monaco.
