

Ready for the Grand National. With a background of lovely English scenery at Woolgar's Farm the string trained by Mr Thrall takes gentle exercise over the frosty ground. Trainers say they are having a lot of trouble with the frost, but Keen Blade is fit nevertheless. And so is Crown Prince who won the National Hunt at Cheltenham in 1934. Third of a hopeful trio is Boy in Blue --- ready to rise to Aintree's great occasion.

ARTHUR WRAGG WEDDING.

Third of the famous trio of jockey brothers, Arthur Wragg has gone into double harness at Caxton Hall Register Office. Many distinguished figures in Turf circles were present when Wragg handed over the domestic reins to Miss Phyllis Wood.

KING CAROL.

When King Carol visited Paris he received the Military Medal at a ceremonial parade in the gardens of the Ministry of War. The Rumanian National Anthem and the Marseillaise were played while the decoration was affixed to the breast of the King by Marshal Franchet d'Esperey. King Carol afterwards left for the country on a journey of romance.

EGYPTIAN AIR FORCE.

The new Egyptian Air Force prepares for a flight over Cairo. With all the modern equipment of aerial warfare the pilots and observers took off for duty above the limitless desert and the ageless wonder of the Sphinx and the Pyramids. Gaumont British News took part in this formation flight where the fighting machines of to-day looked down upon the monuments that have survived a hundred wars.
