

The Majestic returning from New York brought home to England the Poet Laureate. Mr John Masefield has been on a lecture tour in the United States ~~and xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ Now in England he will compose an ode for the Coronation of King Edward.

FOOTBALL.

Parc des Princes Stadium saw an international football match of astonishing speed and vigour when France met Czecho-Slovakia. 40,000 Frenchmen watched the visiting team race away with the game, scoring two goals in quick succession and clinching the argument with a smashing third

MILAN.

When Milan made whoopee at the night Carnival parade the war in Abyssinia was the big feature of the procession. The crowd grew wildly excited as the various floats went by complete with ~~any~~ remarks in Italian ~~and~~

CRUFTS.

The Agricultural Hall at Islington resounds to the assorted noises of the dog world and the air is thick with powder. The entries are many and varied but all are attractive. The smaller dogs made up in spirit what they lacked in inches. ~~In fact,~~ if only someone would let that bulldog off the lead for a few minutes, little Horace would tear him to ~~pieces~~ pieces. When they made this handsome fellow, it seems they had a bit over.
