

A crowd of 65,000 went to the Newcastle ground for the Arsenal's Cup Tie ~~which~~ and ~~most of them~~ sat on it until turned off by the police. Alex James made one of his rare appearances to captain the Arsenal, but he lost the toss and the Highbury club kicked off. Newcastle are the team in stripes. It was an amazing match and the crowd of fans who watched it got their full share of excitement. Three times Arsenal took the lead with smashing goals. Three times Arsenal took the lead and three times Newcastle drew level. The result was a draw 3 all and honours divided meant a fifth round replay.

CHELSEA v. FULHAM.

The Chelsea v. Fulham match was abandoned. It was so foggy that a lot of the spectators who came to watch the match couldn't see that there was no match to watch.

PARTICK THISTLE v. ABERDEEN.

Firhill was the ground on which Aberdeen visited Partick thistle for the match which was drawn three all. Aberdeen are the team in vertical stripes. This was a ding dong struggle in which neither side kept the advantage for long.

SHEFFIELD v LEEDS.

Light was bad when Leeds went to Sheffield United's ground for the fifth round of the F A Cup, but not too bad to prevent the police from spotting the crowd which was encroaching almost on to the pitch. The result was a win for Sheffield by three goals to one --- and the scores might have been higher only some of the forwards lost their way in the fog.
