WEDDING.

St Paul's, Knightsbridge was the church chosen for the wedding of Miss Hyacinth Wills and Mr H.M.H.Ley. All brides look charming, but this one especially so in Juliet cap and coronet of pearls, a gown of ivory white satin and an exceptionally beautiful train. The bridesmaids who attended included the five sisters of the bride.

SCOTS IN AUSTRALIA?

At the Sydney showground Australian Scots held their first big parade. A newly-formed regiment --- these kilted Jocks from Down ~~and~~ Under are the Commonwealth branch of Scotland's own Black Watch.

BOO BOO AND JUBILEE.

Fifty schoolchildren attended ~~the~~ a birthday party at the London Zoo and the guest of honour was called Uncle Jack, although he was nothing to do with the B.B.C. But the sad part of the affair was that the party was given to celebrate the first birthday of Boo Boo's baby Jubilee, ~~xxxxxx~~ and Jubilee was unable to attend and had to eat his cake at home.

VICEROY.

As the end of his term of office draws near Lord Willingdon makes a farewell tour of the India in which he has represented the King - Emperor for the last five years. The Maharajah of Baroda, who has lately been celebrating his Jubilee after sixty years upon the throne, received a visit from the Viceroy, and the splendour of the court lived up to its tradition --- even to the golden elephant of state.
