

NICE CARNIVAL.

Carnival at Nice --- as usual this spectacular show is chiefly notable for the quaint figures which nod along in the procession. . . . huge faces with a look of amiable imbecility that is almost human.

GOLDEN MILLER.

Trainers continue to use the seashore for their racing thoroughbreds. The grey leading is Henri's Choice --- the only horse to continue a racing career after breaking its neck. And the Grand National favourite once again is Golden Miller --- the only horse to become a favourite again after breaking the punters heart.

AUSTRALIAN DIVING.

Harry Tickle is a famous Australian High Diver and the slow motion camera shows why. But Harry isn't content with being able to dive himself --- he wanted to teach young Australia, ~~how to perform those back-knife and corkscrew wonders.~~ "So he rigged up this ingenious contrivance of ropes and pulleys which has the same effect as a padded cell. You may look a bit silly in it, but you can't hurt yourself.
