RACING AT NEWBURY.

1 Some favourites for the Grand National ~~xxxx~~ taking part in the Newbury Handicap<sup>1</sup> included ~~xxxxxxx~~ Remus, Bachelor Prince, Tapinois, Mr Snow's Delaneige and of course, the wonder horse Golden Miller owned by Miss Dorothy Paget and starting to-day at even money. Quite a big field got off the mark with Jerry Wilson, the Miller's own special jockey, keeping the favourite in hand, comfortably near the front rank. Before the turn into the straight Golden Miller refused and threw his jockey --- a great disappointment to his backers and the racing public. The race was <sup>won by Hillsbrook</sup> ~~finished out by Royal Mail and Lord Derby's Hillsbrook~~ --- Hillsbrook winning by a short head. Golden Miller's price for the National tumbled from ~~5-1~~ <sup>five to two</sup> ~~to 1~~ <sup>two</sup>

~~to 1~~ Jerry Wilson walked sadly home.
