

ST DAVID'S DAY. 227

His Majesty the King attended Divine service at All Hallows in the city before proceeding to the Tower for the inspection of the Welsh Guards and the presentation of leeks on the occasion of St David's Day. This is one of the regiments of which His Majesty has assumed the colonelcy since his accession to the throne.

THE KING'S BROADCAST.

After the inspection of the Guards King Edward drove to Broadcasting House for his first speech to the nation as Sovereign of Great Britain and the Empire. Not only the Empire, but almost every other country in the world listened to this dignified and impressive broadcast.

SHEFFIELD.v. SPURS.

Tottenham Hotspur visited Sheffield for the sixth Round Cup tie but the northern club proved too strong. Spurs were in white shirts. United kept pressing hard round the Londoners goal and they had their reward before half time when Barclay put one in. Soon after the resumption of play Dodds netted another for Sheffield. United scored a third and Spurs got one back just before the close, but Sheffield United won 3 - 1.

GRIMSBY v MIDDLESBROUGH.

Grimsby came out first for their match against Middlesbrough in the sixth round of the Cup. Grimsby won the toss and they also won the match by three goals to one, but not before two players had been sent off the field.
