

253
LOUIS AND SCHMELING.

Joe Louis the Brown Bomber is knocking his sparring partner about, getting into shape to meet Max Schmeling on the road to the world championship. / And Max is training to put a stop to the Brown Bomber's meteoric rise in the boxing firmament.

DUKE OF KENT.

The Duke of Kent drove to South London to open the new gates of the Licensed Victuallers Benevolent Institution Home. The gates were erected as a memorial to commemorate the ~~XXXX~~ Duke's Presidency of the Institution last year.

U.S. CAVALRY.

United States troops put on a forced march over a picturesque trail in the Yosemite Valley --- ~~XXXX cavalry and~~ infantry in the National Park making a pretty picture, although it's rather difficult to see what else they're doing.

I.O.M. CAR RACE.

The Isle of Man for a day is given over to the roar of high-powered cars when the cracks go over for the international. / Freddie Dixon withdrew from the race but watch No 9. . . . ~~in a ten year old car he went screaming into favouritism and heaped at terrific speeds.~~
Young Richard Seamon was the winner in spite of a smashed windscreen and a head cut by flying stones ----- Well done!

FELLING CHURCH IN BARRACKS.

Piershill Barracks ---- a traction engine called in to do a <sup>job</sup> ~~xxxx~~ of housebreaking. Being pulled down to make way for new houses this is the chapel attached to the Barracks, and it was built in 1760.