

President Lebrun watched the march past when he opened a new naval school at Brest. / The President afterwards inspected the harbour and reviewed the second squadron on manoeuvres.

ZOO.

Pets Corner at the Zoo --- in its second year this delightful spot has many improvements, and Professor Julian Huxley handed a cage of budgerigars to little Jill Hulbert who opened the proceedings. / Both the visitors and the animals enjoy themselves on these occasions --- but the elephant never forgets that life is real and earnest --- he collects coppers and cake.

STAY-IN STRIKE.

French workmen have started a new form of strike --- in car and other factories the employees locked themselves in and received food and drink from relations outside. The idea spread to a night club, where the gigolos went on strike. They had food and drink on the premises --- enough drink for three months and a sandwich. ~~etc.~~

DIAZ MEMORIAL.

The City of Naples erected a monument to its most famous son --- Marshal Armando Diaz, and 50,000 veterans of the European war attended the unveiling. / Signor Mussolini was not present, but the King attended ~~his~~ his first ceremony since he was proclaimed Emperor of ~~Abyssinia~~ Ethiopia --- definitely a feather in his cap.

BLOWING UP A DITCH.

3,000 acres of new crop land in Delaware need irrigation, so they planted a row of dynamite --- much quicker than digging it up with a pick and shovel. / After blowing it up the camera blew it backwards --- much quicker than putting it back with a shove and pickle.
