

KEYES WEDDING.

Miss Diana Keyes, daughter of Admiral of the Fleet Sir Roger Keyes, was married at Westminster Abbey to Mr James Johnson of the Royal Welch Fusiliers. The ceremony took place in the Henry VII Chapel and the guests were members of the Diplomatic Corps, the Services and Society, Sunshine smiled on the bride and her attendants and the summer frocks gave a foretaste of Ascot.

R.A.F. Rehearsal at Hendon.

Bombers and fighters at Hendon were rehearsing for the Royal Air Force Pageant.

ALDERSHOT TATTOO REHEARSAL.

The special matinee for youngsters --- and thousands of them came to watch battles and bands at the Aldershot Tattoo.

Physical drill on a grand scale made a magnificent spectacle in the arena.

And the Grand Finale --- as the Tattoo reached its inspiring climax